An Act to Amend an Act Entitled "Militia"

SECTION 1. Be it further enacted by the General Assembly of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That during the war the Governor shall have power to call out the militia for local and temporary service, all able-bodied men between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, or such portion thereof in the whole State or any part of the State as he may deem necessary for the public defence. He shall cause the men so called out from each regimental district, as is now established by law to be formed into companies of not less than sixty or more than one hundred privates; who shall select the company officers; whenever any of said districts shall furnish a smaller number than a company, or there shall be a residue after the formation of one or more companies, such smaller number may be attached to any adjoining district and the companies so formed may be organized into battallions and regiments, in which case the commissioned officers of companies shall elect the field officers; the same number of staff officers for each regiment as are provided for in the militia law shall be appointed, and the Governer shall commission all officers during the war, and no longer.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted; That the officers and men shall be subjected to the rules and articles of war of the Confederate States, and shall receive the same pay, rations and allowances while in actual service as those of like grade in the Confederate States' service,

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That there shall be exempted from service under this act the following, to wit: The officers of the State, with their clerks and Secretaries; members and officers of the General Assemhly; judges of the Confederate and State courts; the attorney general, solicitors of the several judical circuits, clerks of courts of record, marshals and sheriffs, jailors, registers, county trustees and keepers of the poor; one salt commissioner of each county, two blacksmiths who have established shops in each captian's district; one miller for each public mill; regular ministers of the gospel; the officers and necessary employees of the insane asylum, and institute for the deaf, dumb, and blind, with their inmates and pupils; physicians who have been habitually engaged in the practice of their profession for four years immediately before this day; the president, superintendent, treasurer, secretary; an agent for each depot, and a reasonable number of engineers, runners, conductors, and mechanics of each railroad company; one editor and the necessary number of compositors for each newspaper; the president professors and stewards of colleges; the principal and teachers of academies; the principal and a reasonable numbers of employees or manufacturers of cotton and woolen goods, iron, leather, shoes, and other articles manufactured of leather, who are working under contracts with the Confederate or State Government, or who have brought themselves within the terms of the act of Congress, by agreeing to take no more than seventy-five per cent. profit upon their manufactures; but in every case it shall be made to appear to the entire satisfaction to such officer as the Government may appoint, that such contract or agreement was bona fide, and not entered into or pretended merely to escape military duty; and that the Governor shall have power in special and extraordinary cases to exempt any other person.

SEC. 4, Be it further enacted, That in executing this act the Governor is empowed to employ such officers of the militia as may be necessary, and he may appoint a suitable number of drill officers, with the rank and pay of junior second lieutenants.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That whenever the Governor shall deem it expedient to raise secretly in places where it cannot be done publicly under this act, companies for special service, he may commission officers for that purpose, with authority to raise such companies to consist of as many men and officers as he may determine, who when in actual service shall be entitled to the same pay and under the same rules as the force herein authorized except as to the appointment of officers, which shall be made by the Governor.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That the Governor shall have power to appoint field officers to command any force raised under the 5th section that he may think proper and expedient.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That all laws and clauses of laws coming in conflict with this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall be in force and take effect from and after its ratification. [Ratified the 10th day of February, 1863.]

PAPER.

OFFICE C. S. ORD., WORKS,
SALISBURY, N. C. June 24 1863.

This article is being manufactured largely at various points in the Confederacy but the scarcity of rags bids fair to interfere seriously with the manufacture.

In the manufacture of Catridge paper used in the fabrication of ammunition, raw cotton can be used, if a certain proportion of hemp be mixed with it.

I am authorized by the Ordnance Department to purchase material for the purpose, and I take this method of appealing to the people to assist me in collecting old rags, bagging, waste cordage &c., or any of old hemp.

A good price will be paid for the above material varying from 10 to 25 cents per pound according to condition, locality &c.

I will also pay 40 cents per pound for old scap lead delivered at the works.

TO COTTON PLANTERS.

I HAVE BEEN APPOINTED BY THE SECRETARY of the Treasury, Chief Agent for the purchase of Cotton for the Confederate Government within the State of North Carolina, and will pay for the same in 7 per cent. Bonds or Cash.
Sub-Agents visiting the different parts of the State, buying in my name, will have written certificates of appointment.
By order of the "Secretary of the Treasury," all Cotton purchased by myself, or my Agents, on and after the 18th day of March, 1863, will be paid for in 7 per cent. Bonds or Cash, and not 8 per cent. Bonds as stated in a former advertisement. Up to that time, however, the 8 per cent. Bonds will be furnished as stated.
Patriotic citizens are now offered an opportunity to aid the Government by selling to it their Cotton rather than to private capitalists.

"Voice of the N. Carolina Troops."

We copy in another column a capital editorial, under the above caption, from the Salisbury Watchman, and we hope it will be read and handed over to all those persons who may be encouraging gloomy thoughts of the future or now countenancing those expressions of sentiment specially referred to.

Beautiful Cassimeres.

We inspected two bolts of goods, yesterday, at the Tailoring establishment of Mr. J. S. Phillips, and notwithstanding they are neither German, French or English, but purely Southern productions, they are decidedly prettier and more to be desired, in every respect, than though they had been imported.

The first piece inspected is a bolt of steel mixed, and we are sure that a suit of it would adorn the person of a king. This article of goods was manufactured by Mr. T. R. Tate, of the Mountain Island Mills, the Prince of Manufactures, and those who admire a beautiful suit of dark Cassimere, had best have their measure taken before the supply is engaged.

The second bolt inspected was from the Rock Island Mills, manufactured by Messrs. Young, Wriston & Orr. It is a superb grey. long nap, and equal if not superior to anything of the kind we have ever seen imported. It is beautiful.

Those of our friends who can afford a suit of each of these cassimeres, should avail themselves of the opportunity at the earliest moment, by calling at Mr. J. S. Phillips' Tailoring establishment.

Sale at Wilmington.

On reference to advertisement in another column, it will be seen that Wilkes Morris, Esq., will sell at auction, in Wilmington, on Wednesday next, the 9th of September, commencing at 9 o'clock, "the entire cargoes of steamphips "General Beauregard," "Arabian" and "Flora," together with sundry consignments "Ex Mary Ann" and "Margaret" and 'Jessie,' making altogether the most important sale ever held in the Confederacy."

"The fall of Knoxville."

The annexed startling intelligence we copy from the Augusta Constitutionalist of Sunday last, August 30th:

"Passengers by the Georgia railroad, as well as from Macon by the Savannah road, bring the intelligence that Knoxville has been occupied by the enemy. We have no particulars and hope that the intelligence arises from the cutting of the road at some point this side of Knoxville. We presume we shall, as usual, be permitted to copy the particulars from the Atlanta papers to-morrow."

JUSTICE TO THE DOCTORS.—It is quite common for flippant writers to make ungenerous flings at the medical profession. A pleasing writer thus takes up the pen in behalf of the disciples of Esculapius:

"Doctors, generally, are men of charity, of patience and suffering. Day and night they have to go at the call of the invalid, often without fee or reward, and not unfrequently have to furnish their patients with medicine and with nourishment. If they fail to make cures, it is because they are only human; and if they commit errors, let them be censured only by those who are free from fault. Did it ever occur to invalids how important it is to call in their doctors at an early hour of the morning, and how much of his time might be saved by so doing. Failing to observe this rule, a doctor may have to make a dozen trips in the course of the same day, to the same neighborhood, and thus be broken down, when his health might be preserved if his patients were only systematic in their demands upon his time."

Army Correspondence.

HEADQUARTERS MECK. RANGERS,
Camp near Raccoon Ford, Va.,
August 26, 1863.

Dear Bulletin: There has been some little excitement since my last note. On last Sunday we had a little skirmish with the enemy. A regiment of infantry and two squadrons of cavalry of the enemy crossed the river to drive back some cattle when the 63rd pursued them, running them back, capturing two horses and wounding, as we suppose, several Yankees. They out-numbered us ten or more to one, and they seem to know the 63d pretty well—that it is better to get out of the way than to stand and fight them.

Every thing is getting very scarce in this region, and we shall be compelled to move to some other quarter soon.

I learn that the scout brings news that a large portion of Meade's army has gone from the other side of the river. It is supposed that it has been sent in the direction of Charleston, to assist in reducing that place. We don't expect to hear of the fall of Charleston very soon, if at all.—With a strong force and good fortifications there will be no necessity of its falling. We know everything will be done to save it, as we have great confidence in the commander. But if it should fall, our cause is the more strengthened, as we can the more concentrate our forces, which should have been done from the commencement of the war. Our army has been too much scattered. With one hundred thousand more men, Gen. Lee could have effected his purpose in Maryland and Pennsylvania—burnt Philadelphia, taken Baltimore, &c., &c.—The Yankees seem to think that Charleston is the Confederacy—so says the N. Y. Herald and the pickets on the river—and it will be a great jubilee to them if the city falls. They are trying to raise a great excitement on that, since everything else has failed. The Yankee nation is governed by excitement and will do anything to get it up, it matters not what.

Our chief scout was drowned last week while attempting to cross the river when it was full. His name was Peter Stone.

Vegetables are just getting ripe—and we may feel a little better.

The Mecklenburg Rangers are enjoying very good health. HAL.

Voice of North Carolina Troops.

From the Carolina Watchman.]

We publish in this paper the proceedings of our Troops in General Convention at Orange Court House, on the 12th of this month; and we invite to them the attention of all our people at home. It will be seen that our troops, who have borne the heat and burden of the struggle for independence, have no sympathy with the movement in portions of the State, instigated by the Standard and Progress, at Raleigh, believing that its tendency will protract the war, increase their hardships, and diminish the chances for "an honorable peace." No one will deny but that our troops have a right to be heard in a case like this, and that their opinion is entitled to the highest respect. To deny it, is to subject them to the condition of beasts of burden, and utterly deprive them of the right to influence their own destiny, and accomplish the work of their country's independence.

The authors of this new and dangerous trouble in our affairs, are now attempting to make the people at home believe that the private members of our troops were not allowed a fair expression of their views in the Convention referred to.

The officers of companies and regiments are assailed as tyrants, lording it over the privates, whom, it is said, they treat as menials;—and the privates have a case made up for them, on which they are twitted, apparently for the purpose of arousing indignation and exciting them to insubordination. They are told—"they were given a seat in the kitchen, but not allowed to enter the big house."

The unprejudiced, intelligent portion of the people, cognizant of all the facts, and the private soldiers themselves, cannot fail to place a proper estimate upon this artful dodge. Doubtless there have been, since this war commenced, many instances of brainless and heartless official tyranny, serving the evil purposes of immediate harm to the authors subjects of it, and to our cause in producing discontent and affording fruitful pretexes to enemies in our midst to foment mischief. But those who will take the trouble to think, will readily perceive that these are exceptional cases; and that the rule in our army has been the contrary, characterized by a just sense of the respect due to the privates, whom, the officers know, they must some day meet as equals in the private walks of life. It is unreasonable to believe otherwise, and there are no proofs sustaining the charge of useless tyranny as a prevailing evil among the officers of our troops.

In the matter of this army Convention. what real or imaginary good could possibly be supposed to result from a deliberate suppression or falsification of the true sentiments of the privates! Look at the list of those who took part in it. They are the delegates sent up by the different regiments, in each of which, a pubic meeting was held to express the views of the men, to appoint members to represent them at this Convention. Is it to be supposed that the officers of all these corps acted the corrupt and disgraceful part of so managing the primary meetings as to prevent the true sentiments of the privates from being heard? Would they attempt to deceive themselves and their friends at home by such base means? Are all the officers corrupt, unprincipled tyrants? The man who believes such an absurdity—or affects to believe it—is no friend to either officers or privates, and has need to examine himself, as with a lighted candle, to see if he has in him any faith in the cause of our country. He is helping to sow the seeds of jealousy, distrust and discord amongst ourselves. He is weakening the hearts and paralyzing the arms of our people.—He is giving aid and comfort to the enemy who greedily accepts all such things as encouragements to press on in his efforts for our subjugation.

With these remarks we submit the proceedings of the Convention referred to, hoping that all at home will heed them; and resolve to discountenance any and every thing calculated to disturb the peace and weaken the confidence of our brave defenders. They require our sympathy and our aid in the arduous services they are rendering. Let us not distress them by wounding their hearts and increasing their burdens.

BRAZIL, THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC AND THE CONFEDERATE STATES.—The Richmond "Whig" suggests the expediency of sending Confederate States Commissioners to Brazil and the Argentine Republic, for sveral reasons.

1. The identity of our slave institution with the former; together with the intimate commercial intercourse of our Southern ports and Brazil; Richmond had a large commerce in flour with Rio Janiero, the Southern description of that article being greatly prefered to the Northern.

2. A trade with the Argentine Republic in hides and tallow has been greatly productive to the South, besides many points of resemblance between her political system and ours would render a representative there also highly applicable.

A private letter from the left wing of Bragg's army to a gentleman in this city, says the Yankees are rebuilding the railroad between Huntsville and Chattanooga. Our brave chieftain, Gen. Bragg is on the watch-tower, and should Rosencranz attempt any movement he will, I think, find himself checkmated. Do not be surprised to hear news of warm work in this section. I feel confident when the struggle comes that the army of Tennessee will show itself able to repel the foul invader from any further advance into our territory.—Aug. Constitutionalist.

A CARD.

To the Voters of the Eigth Congressional District of North Carolina:

I respectfully announce myself to you as a candidate for re-election.

By your kind partiality I have the honor of a seat in the First Congress of the Confederate States. From the time of my election the Confederacy has been engaged in a stupendous war, for the purpose of driving back the ruthless invaders of its soil, and establishing the peace and independence to which it is so justly entitled. Overtures having been repeatedly made by our Government, to terminate hostilities and settle the existing difficulties by negotiation and honorable adjustment, and these overtures having been as often indignantly rejected, no alternative remained to us but to drive back the invaders and conquer a peace by force of arms.

While in Congress, therefore, as your representative, I used every exertion in my power to strengthen and increase the army, to give proper assistance and encouragemant to the Executive, and to prevent, as far as possible, those disastrous collisions between the civil and the military authorities which are so apt to occur and so difficult to adjust in time of war.

I voted for both Conscription acts, not because I desired to force the Southern citizen from his home and family to the camp and the battle-field, but because I considered them indispensable to the independence of the country.

I voted to raise the pay of the non-commissioned officers and privates in the army, because I believed that they both deserved and needed it.

I voted against the Exemption acts, not because I was opposed to all exemptions, but because I considered those acts wrong in principle, dangerous in policy, and unjust in many of their discriminations.

I voted for the Funding bill, because I thought it necessary to diminish the volume of the currency and thereby to give more healthy action to the finances of the country.

I voted for the Tax bill of the House, which was rejected by the Senate: but, before the conference bill, which is the present law, came up for action in the House, I was called away by affliction in my family, and hence I had no opportunity to vote either for or against that measure.

In fine, I voted for every measure which I thought would give strength to our army, vigor to the Government, and confidence to the country.

Should you endorse my course as your representative by a re-election to Congress, I shall be guided by the same principles and policy which my record indicates, and I shall devote my best energies and attention to secure your interests: and, although I desire peace as ardently as any one, and shall use every honorable means to obtain it, yet I will consent to no adjustment which does not bring with it the independence of the Confederate States, their total separation from the United States, and all the blessings of liberty to which we are entitled by inheritance and for which we are now contending.

Our cause is just. Our trust is in God. Our destiny, I firmly believe, is to be victorious in this struggle, and to enjoy a career glorious beyond parallel in all past history. Let us prove ourselves worthy of our cause, and worthy of our destiny. Let us but be united in our efforts, and the whole world combined cannot enslave us.

I am, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
W. LANDER.

REPORTS OF THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1863, by J. S. THRASHER, in the Clerks office of the District Court of the Confederate States, for Northern District of Georgia.

FROM THE NORTH.

RICHMOND, Sept. 1.

The Germans of New York held a Mass Meeting on the 27th, to take measures to test the legality of the Conscription Act. Severel committees were appointed and much excitement pervaded. The speakers were loud in their denunciation of what they term "civil and inhuman measures."

The gunboats Connecticut and Quebec, collided off New Inlet, near Wilmington, on the 21st. Both sustained serious damage. They had just been overhauled at a very great expense.

Vallandigham arrived at Windsor, opposite Detroit, on the 24th.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Sept. 1.

An eloquent letter of the Hon. W. C. Rives, on the aspect of public affairs, was published in the Whig this morning. In the concluding paragraph he says. "On whatever side I look, I see no omen for discouragement, but on the contrary, new grounds of assurance with regard to the ultimate and certain triumph of the great cause in which we are embarked. No local or occasional disaster can check the onward progress of our great cause which has been blessed with the approving smiles of heaven, sustained by stout hearts, with unceasing vigilance and unfaltering faith."

Several public men of this State have taken the stump and are addressing mass meetings in various sections. They are using the enthusiasm of the people everywhere.

Passengers from Fredericksburg, this afternoon, report an unusal commotion in the army of the Yankees in Stafford just before the train started, the cause of which could not be ascertained.

An official statement shows that the entire debt of Virginia at this time does not exceed thirty-six million.

FROM CHARLESTON.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 1.

All is quiet this morning.

LATER.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 1,

Firing this afternoon has been slow, the fleet not participating. The land batteries chiefly firing at Sumter, which holds out gallantly, and but little damage done. The garrison is in good spirits.

Maj. Gen. J. F. Gilmer is here and will enter upon his duties to-morrow as second in command to Gen. Beauregard.

Most of the non-combattants have left the city.

The enemy have not pushed their works towards Battery Wagner during the last four days, but are strengthening their present position. Their sharp-shooters are very active.

No casualties on our side in the action with the monitors yesterday.

BRITTON'S BLUE-BLACK

WRITING FLUID!

MANUFACTURED BY

J. E. BRITTON,
CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THE subscriber is manufacturing at Charlotte, N. C. an article of superior to any that has yet been offered to the Southern public.

This INK is of a Blue-Black color, and will not mould or thicken, nor will it corrode a steel pen.

Tests having been made with this Ink, both in the sun and in water, and they have proven such, that the subscriber feels confident in offering it to dealers as a superior article. The sun will not deface its color, but gives to it a brighter one, and by putting the manuscript written with it in water, it will give it a deeper blue-black color.

It will be found that it will not run, and parts written with it becoming wet will not be injured or defaced in the least.

It is purely a chemicle article, and those procuring this Ink will get an article that time will not deface, but which will give it, instead, a more permanent and lasting quality.

Manuscripts written thirteen years ago, (and which have been exposed to the sun and air since that time,) with Ink manufactured from this receipt, are as bright and as good to-day as when first written.

Dealers will be supplied on as liberal terms as possible.

This Ink can be found for retail at the Daily Bulletin office, where the subscriber will be pleased to wait upon patrons. Enquire for BRITTON'S BLUE-BLACK WRITING FLUID.

JOHN WHITAKER,
aug, 11,'63—d6t Prest, Camden Hotel Co,

TO THE SOLDIERS OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES.

FELLOW SOLDIERS:

After more than two years of a warfare scarcely equalled in the number, manitude, and fearful carnage of its battles; a warfare in which your courage and fortitude have illustrated your country and attracted not only gratitude at home, but admiration abroad; your enemies continue a struggle in which our final triumph must be inevitable. Unduly elated with their recent success, they imagine that temporary reverses can quell your spirit or shake your determination, and they are now gathering heavy masses for a general invasion in the vain hope that by a desperate effort, success may at length be reached.

You know too well, my countrymen, what they mean by success. Their malignant rage aims at nothing lest than the extermination of yourselves, your wives, and children. They seek to destroy what they cannot plunder. They propose as the spoils of victory, that your homes shall be partitioned among the wretches whose atrocious cruelties have stamped infamy on their Government. They design to incite servile insurrection and light the fires of incendiarism wherever they can reach your homes, and they debauch the inferior race, hitherto docile and contented, by promising indulgence of the vilest passions as the price of treachery. Conscious of their inability to prevail by legitimate warfare, not daring to make peace least they should be hurled from their seats of power, the men who now rule in Washington refuse even to confer on the subject of putting an end to outrages which disgrace our age, or to listen to a suggestion for conducting the war according to the usages of civilization.

Fellow-citizens, no alternative is left you but victory, or subjugation, slavery and the utter ruin of yourselves, your families and your country. The victory is within your reach. You need but stretch forth your hands to grasp it. For this end, all that is necessary is, that those who are called to the field by every motive that can move the human heart, should promptly repair to the post of duty, should stand by their comrades now in front of the foe, and thus so strengthen the armies of the Confederacy as to ensure sucess. The men now absent from their posts would, if present in the field, suffice to create numercial equality between our force and that of the invaders—and when with approach to such equality, have we failed to be victorious? I believe that but few of those absent are actuated by unwillingness to serve their country; but that many have found it difficult to resist the temptation of a visit to their homes and the loved ones from whom they have been so long separated; that others have left foe temporary attention to their affairs, with the intention of returning, and then have shrunk from the consequences of their violation of duty; that others again, have left their posts from mere restlessness and desire of change, each quieting the upbraidings of his conscience by pursuading himself that his individual services could have no influence on the general result.

These and other causes (although far less disgraceful than the desire to avoid danger, or to escape from the sacrifics required by patriotism) are, nevertheless, grevious faults, and place the cause of our beloved country, and of everything we hold dear, in imminent peril. I repeat that the men who now owe duty to their country, who have been called out and have not yet reported for duty or who have absented themselves from their posts, are sufficient in number to secure us victory in the struggle now impending.

I call on you, then, my countrymen, to hasten to your camps, in obedience to the dictates of honor and of duty, and summon those who have absented themselves without leave, or who have remained absent beyond the period allowed by their furloughs, to repair without delay to their respective commands, and I do hereby declare that I grant a general pardon and amnesty to all officers and men within the Confederacy, now absent without leave, who shall, with the least possible delay, return to their proper posts of duty; but no excuse will be received for any delay beyond twenty days after the first publication of this proclamation in the State in which the absensee may be at the date of the publication. This amnesty and pardon shall extend to all who have been accused, or who have been convicted and are undergoing sentence for absence without leave on desertion, excepting, only those who have been twice convicted of desertion.

Finally, I conjure my countrywomen—the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of the Confederacy—to use their all-powerful influence in aid of this call, to add one crowning sacrifice to those which their patriotism has so freely and constantly offered on their country's altar, and to take care that no one who owe service in the field shall be sheltered at home from the disgrace of having deserted their duty to their families, to their country, and to their God.

{SEAL.} Given under my hand, and the Seal of the Confederate States, at Richmond, this 1st day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

By the President:
J. P. BENJAMIN, Secretary of State.

CONSCRIPT OFFICE,
CAMP HOLMES, August, 5, 1863.

General Orders, No. 17.

In accordance with the above proclamation of amnesty and pardon by the President, an earnest invitation is extended to all persons absent without leave from the army, to report themselves at the Camp of Instruction immediately, to be forwarded to their regiments. All good citizens are entreated to use every means in their power to prevail upon persons of the class named to return to their duty. They will be well treated and pa[rd]st offences forgotton. Transportation will be furnished to their commands.

But it must be distinctly understood that after the expir[ation] of the time set by the President, the most vigorous measures in the power of the Government will be instituted for the arrest and punishment of all absent from their commands without leave. None need expect to evade longer the service which they justly owe to their country.

Let them report at once to their Military officers to be sent to camp, or come in person without delay.

II. A Camp of Instruction will be opened at "Camp Vance," near Morganton, on the 10th of August. All persons subject to conscription in the 9th and 10th District will report to Capt. James C. McRae, Commanding Camp Vance.

CIRCULAR.

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES OF AMERICA.

THIS Association, at its meeting in April, resolved to hold its next meeting at Atlanta, Georgia, on the first Wednesday in September. The state of the country, very different from what it was anticipated at that time, forbids the expectation of a general attendonce of the teachers and the friends of education; and many of them have expressed the opinion that the purposes of the Association would be best subserved by postponing the meeting. Concurring in these views, and believing that they express the general judgment, I deem myself authorized to announe that the meeting of the Association is POSTPONED to some future day, of which due notice will be given in the public prints.

DESIRABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE.

ON SATURDAY, THE 5TH DAY OF SEPTEMber next, I will offer for sale to the highest bidder in the Town of Charlotte, a valuable Plantation, (belonging to the N. C. Military Institute) lying within half a mile of Davidson College, N. C.

This tract comprises 200 acres, about 80 acres of which is wood land, oak and pine. The Atlantic, Tenn. & Ohio R. R., running from Charlotte to Statesville passes through one corner of the place.

This Plantation offers a desirable and safe location to persons from other sections of the State wishing to find a home for themselves and their negroes.

Persons wishing to view the premises before sale, with a view of purchasing, can have daily opportunities, as trains run daily from Charlotte to Davidson College, and any of the residents at Davidson College will show the property.

KOOPMANS BITTERS

PREPARED BY B. KOOPMAN.

CHARLOTTE, N. C

THESE unrivalled Bitters possess peculiar curative properties in all Affections of the Bowels. They will be found effectual in the cure of Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach and all those painful and troublesome diseases arising from a derangement of the digestive organs and irregular action of the functions of the stomach and intestines. They will also be found a SAFE REMEDY FOR CHILLS AND FEVERS.

These Bitters are prepared from Roots brought from Germany, and for over a century have been found effectual in that country for the permanent cure of the diseases enumerated above. They contain no deleterious drug, but are compounded entirely from roots, and are perfectly safe at all times.

A simple trial is all that is asked, as a cure will naturally follow, and that is the best certificate of their superiority over every other remedy for those particular diseases.

They are manufactured by B. Koopman, Charlotte, N. C., and for sale by,

KOOPMAN & PHELPS.

Also, for sale at F. Scarr's and E. Nye Hutchinson & Co's. Drug Stores. [feb 28-1y
